

WJJBA Production Award

- Cows must have at least one owner that is a paid WJJBA member
 - WJJBA membership must be paid by 4/1/2025 to be eligible for awards
- Cows must be owned by the WJJBA member on or before the cow's freshening date and through the completion of their lactation
- Cows must complete their lactation between 1/1/2025 and 12/31/2025
- Awards will be presented based on combined fat and protein. Two awards per age division (based on age at calving) will be presented. 3x records will be adjusted before determining award winners. Rainbow Dairy sponsors an award for the overall High Protein cow with the most pounds of protein.
- There is no limit on number of entries by WJJBA member.

Please complete all information below. If your animal is in a REAP herd and their qualifying production record appears on their Performance Report on infoJersey there is no need to send an individual DHIA cow page. If you are unsure or the record is not on infoJersey please send a copy of the individual DHIA cow page or DHIA herd test sheet that shows the animal's ID and qualifying record.
